Mrs. Alexander DeClouet wrote her two sons Alexander and Paul a personal letter on March 4, 1856 and stated;

I write you a few lines in haste to tell you of the sad news of the death of our old uncle (Christopher de l'homme). Your father was to write you this, but he is so busy that he can't always write to those he wants or as often as he would want. Your poor old Uncle died February 20.
