Spring Hill July 24, (1857)

My dear Alexander,

I have received your nice letter but I regret not to be able to answer it at length at this time.

I am going to be away for a few weeks, so do not address your letters to Spring Hill at the present time. I shall be back soon but I will still write to you on the way.

Farewell, a handshake to Paul (your brother) and believe in the affection of your devoted,

J. de Parada
